Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Accessibility Statement

The Lorain County Historical Society respects, values and celebrates the unique attributes, characteristics, and perspectives of each person. We recognize that widespread biases have prevented the honest and balanced portrayal of the past. We are committed to a diverse Board of Directors; equitable hiring practices; and diversity in the content of our exhibits, presentations, publications, and other programming. We consider these core values to be drivers of institutional excellence, and we invite all to join us as we strive to understand and share a full representation of history.
